

Mental Health Week

This year's theme is all about expressing yourself. Discuss ways your child likes to express their individuality. It might be through what they wear or something they like to do. Perhaps they could try something new as a way of expressing yourself. Click on the link below for some different ideas about how to express yourself